ANGELS CENTER OF HOPE (ACOH) FOUNDATION

Privacy Policy

Angels Center of Hope (ACOH) Foundation is committed to the privacy of individuals who visit and interact with www.acoh.or.ke (the "User/s"), and follows the privacy policy outlined below . This privacy policy applies to ACOH website(www.acoh.or.ke) and social sites (https://www.facebook.com/acohkenya/)

Personally Identifiable Information

Visitors are not asked to provide any personally identifiable information to access the Site. Users may be asked to share their email address to subscribe to email alerts or newsletters. In this event, the ACOH will store this information securely and will not share, rent or sell it to anyone other than ACOH partner organizations. We reserve the right to share names, addresses, account history ,and program images with our partners (donors) for purposes that include provision of such information on fundraising activities and appeals for donations. In no case will any sensitive financial information be shared. See below for the use of information related to online donations.

Non-personally identifiable information

By accessing the Site, certain information such as Internet protocol (IP) addresses, navigation through the Site, the browser used and the time spent, along with other similar information, will be stored on our servers and on a third-party analytics software. This information is treated confidentially.

The purpose of this data collection is to understand better the preferences of the Site's visitors and improve their experience on our pages. This information is never connected with any personal information that visitors supply to us if they register on our Site.

Use of cookies

A cookie is a piece of data stored on the user's hard drive containing information about the user. Usage of a cookie is in no way linked to any personally identifiable information while on the Site.

By setting a cookie, the ACOH will remember the User the next time he/she visits the Site and therefore ACOH will not have to ask questions that the User has already answered (like address information).

The User is always free to decline our cookies if his/her browser permits, although in that case he/she may not be able to use certain features on the site and may be required to re-enter information more frequently to use certain services on the Site.

Donations to the Angels Center of Hope(ACOH) Foundation

ACOH requests information from the User on its donation form. Here the User must provide contact information (like name and address) and financial information (like credit card number, expiration date). This information is used to conduct the transaction and help us better manage donors. If we have trouble processing a donation, this information is also used to contact the User. ACOH will store this information securely and will not share it, rent or sell it to anyone other than ACOH partner organizations. We reserve the right to share names, addresses, and account history with our partners for purposes that include provision to you of information on fundraising activities and appeals for donations. In no case will any sensitive financial information be shared.

Correction and Updating Personal Information

A User may modify personally identifiable information (such as phone or email address) by logging into his/her account which can be done through the top of the donation section of the ACOH Site.

Opting-out

Users may elect to receive communications such as newsletters and other material from ACOH. If they do, they will have the opportunity to stop receiving such communications at any time by logging into their account from the top of the donation section of the ACOH Site and editing their contact preferences or by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of the emails.

Notification of Changes

If ACOH decides to change its privacy policy, ACOH will post those changes to this page so Users are always aware of what information we collect and how we use it.
